

6516207677.txt

I love XM radio as it is, I pay for it and I expect them to deliver what the paying customer wants. Don't interfere, nobody receives XM that doesn't want it. The NAB has no right to request the FCC to get involved in satellite radio. If the FCC is so overstaffed that they don't have enough to do dealing with the radio waves maybe we should be requesting congress to cut your budget.Terry